14TH INTERNATIONAL CHEFS DAY

October 26, 2017

INTERNATIONAL

Chefs Day

October 26, 2017, Hong Kong Jockey Club, Happy Valley Racecourse

The long-awaited 14th International Chefs Day – the day when we chefs contribute, experience and communicate with those less fortunate to gain a better understanding of the challenges they face – finally arrived on October 26. The HKCA members celebrated this fun-filled event with the Hong Chi Association and the Fu Hong Society at the Hong Kong Disneyland Hotel.

It was again a huge success with over 100 volunteers, including the Hong Kong Young Chefs Club (HKYCC), student volunteers from supporting us with industry sponsors, contributing on food items, logistics, equipment and utensils. Most of all, they gave us their valuable time.

As in the past, we cooked a buffet for over 600 guests and prepared Hong Kong Disneyland preparing 400 lunch boxes for those that could not join us at the occasion.

We are very humbled and at the same time happy at the overwhelming response, enthusiasm and cooperation we received from our members and friends. Seeing chefs, suppliers and supporters come together and work as a team brought sunshine and smiles to the faces of the needy.
