GLOBAL CHEFS CHALLENGE – ASIA SEMI-FINAL

BAUHINIA CUP

Hong Kong, May 7-10, 2014

WACS Global Chef Challenge, Asia Semi-final: May 9, 2013

Thursday May 9th was the day that marked the beginning of a giant step for the chefs joining these 3 competitions: Global Pastry Chef, Hans Bueschkens, and Global Chef. The competitions kicked off at 7am with 6 young chefs for Hans Bueschkens and 5 pastry chefs for Global Pastry Chef, and in the afternoon session, 8 chefs from Asia for the Global Chef semi-final, competing for a spot to represent Asia in the finals taking place at WACS Congress 2014 in Stavanger, Norway. The Asian winners will compete for the world title with the other six winners from Pacific Rim, Africa-Middle East, The Americas and Northern, Southern and Central Europe.

The nineteen aspiring chefs with a craving for culinary put their kitchen skills to the test as they competed for the Asia representation spot. We saw many friends, sponsors, supporters and culinary enthusiasts present to catch a glimpse of the chefs in action.

Our HKSAR Culinary Team members: Calvin Choi, Pong Lau and Kevin Chui took part in the three semi-finals. Chef Calvin Choi beats the other seven Asian countries gracefully. He will represent not just Hong Kong, but Asia in next July at WACS Congress 2014 in Stavanger, Norway.

Golden Bauhinia Cup: May 10, 2013

The top scoring chefs from the professional individual cooking categories were invited to participate in this first ever Golden Bauhinia Cup to compete for the final championship. Our HK National Team Chef Steve Yuen won the western cooking championship
