

Restaurant Head Chef

Hong Kong

Our client is a local chain with approximately 10 restaurants and bars across Hong Kong. Their most prominent concept is a 140 seat steak and chop house situated within one of the cities most premium mixed use malls (Shopping, Dining, Residential, Hotels & Commercial)

We are looking for a head chef that has a proven track record in a busy fast casual restaurant setting where breakfast lunch and dinner is served. He/she should have the ability to drive quality and consistency through strong leadership and training of a small team of approximately 10 chefs.

The selected candidate should have solid experience in Hong Kong and be currently in the city or have a working visa to work here, we need someone on board as soon as possible. This is a local position with a base salary in the range of HK$ 35 - 40K plus usual benefits, this company does offers great career advancement opportunities for the right person. Interested candidates should send a full resume plus a recent photograph to jonathan@gsa-asia.com