

Head Chef

Hong Kong

The Butchers Club is one of Asia's fastest growing F&B operations, it currently has 10 restaurants in; Hong Kong Singapore and Indonesia with plans to open in London and Dubai in 2016.

We are looking for a young and adventurous chef to oversee a 50 seat busy steak house restaurant in the heart of Hong Kong. The ideal candidate will currently be in a similar role with a standalone or hotel based restaurant serving modern European cuisine, prior steak house experience would be an asset.

In order to take advantage of the working holiday visa in Hong Kong we need candidates that are 30 years of age or under and have passports from one of the following countries: UK, Australia, New Zealand, Germany, Canada, Japan, South Korea or France, alternatively it could be a chef that currently has a working visa for Hong Kong

We are offering a great entry level package and accommodation close to the restaurant. This is an amazing opportunity to join a young and outgoing team that work hard and play hard and also to live and work in the one of the worlds' culinary capitals. We are looking for someone with no ties and can jump on a plane within a couple of weeks and start working immediately. (single status)
