

At Hong Kong Personal Chef Ltd, we create effortless dining experiences for our customers, through the hard work and commitment of our kitchen & office team.

In our kitchens, everything is made from scratch. We simmer our own stocks, mince our own meat and we dehydrate our own fruit. We use well-sourced, natural ingredients and we cook them with care, so we know absolutely everything that goes into our food.

If you care about cooking as much as we do, we have just the job for you.

We are now searching for Full time and part time chefs, at Senior Commis Chef/ Chef de Partie level to join our new 'Invisible Kitchen' team and grow with our expanding operations.

If you're interested to find out more, please get in touch now.

The following are essential:

- A valid HKID card & the right to work in Hong Kong.
- Good English speaking, basic reading & writing ability.
- Excellent food hygiene and kitchen safety knowledge, and an outstanding practitioner in this area (evidence of local/overseas certification is an advantage).
- Excellent communication skills.
- Minimum 2 years work experience in good quality western kitchens (for Commis position)
- Minimum 3 years work experience in good quality western kitchens (for Chef de Partie position).

The following would be an advantage, but are not required:

- To be up-to-date with modern cuisine trends (and experiment with new techniques) while having a good understanding of the classics.
- Experience working in private events/functions (private parties, dinner parties, canape events, banquets etc.)
- Knowledge of modern thinking on nutrition.

The salary range is 12-16k per month (based on experience) for a full-time 45-hour week, straight shifts only, with performance bonus, uniform and laundry service, rental reimbursement scheme, medical benefits, paid lunch break, MPF & staff discount. Part-time hours will vary to suit your situation.

This role will be filled by a chef with a passion for cooking real, honest food. You should have an eye for detail, exceptionally high standards and want to create exceptional dining experiences.

If this job is for you, please send the following to operations@hongkongpersonalchef.com

- Cover letter to briefly explain why this opportunity is perfect for you.
- CV stating your last salary, and what your recent positions have entailed.

All Personal data collected will be used for recruitment purpose only.